

DIAMELA VILLALBA

Full Stack Developer
Bachelor's Degree in Marketing

ABOUT ME

I am passionate about Full Stack, with the mission of popularizing technology so that everyone can take advantage of its power. My Marketing specification drives me to understand the needs of companies and clients. My experience in Full Stack development allows me to convert those needs into solid and easy-to-use technological solutions. I am versatile, adaptable and committed.

I adapt to any environment and work as a team to achieve the best results.

I am an excellent communicator, uniting both languages in a single language!
